

MR & MRS JOHN BISSETT
120 E HARTSDALE AVE 11C.
HARTSDALE N.Y. 10530
12 MAY 1989.

Mrs. Nucci.

Our Son Kenneth John Bissett turned 21 on 19 DEC 1988
He was a student at Cornell University. Majoring in Communication.
Ken also had a year & half of Engineering. At Cornell Before His Transfer To Arts & Communication. In Sept of 88 He was accepted into The Synouse D.I.P.A Program. Ken was To Graduate From Cornell The Class of 1990.

Ken was described by his class mates. As a Gifted writer & artist. And was extremely well versed. in literature History & Photography. His goal. From The class mates opinion was to become a Stephen King

The Spring Semester of 1988 Ken was on The Cornell Deans list. During this semester Ken was. Asst.
Editor & Photo Editor For The Cornell Countryman A Cornell University Publication Two of his articles one on Liquor on Campus. and The History of The Empire Apple were RECOGNIZED For detail Reporting & The Art that he drew
For the article. His instructors. were astonished at his Detail Reporting and Commented. How critical of his writing and his art. accepting only excellent. Results

This was manifested in London ^{where} one of his Photography Projects was on Display in a Museum.

I BELIEVE I CAN BEST ^{DESCRIBE} WHAT KENNETH MEANT.

To us. IN THIS WAY.

Kennedy was. A CHRISTMAS GIFT. AND ONE.
THAT IMPROVED WITH AGE LIKE A FINE WINE EACH YEAR
HIS ABILITIES AND TALENTS BROUGHT US MORE & MORE PRIDE
AND JOY. WHE THEN IT WAS HIS GRADES ON HIS WRITINGS ON JUST BEING ~~THE~~^{A.} GENTLE WONDERFUL PERSON GOD IS.
NOW ENJOYING THE FINE WINE. THAT IS MY KENNETH BUT GOD SHOULD HAVE WAITED UNTIL 101 RATHER THAN
21. HE WAS MY ONLY CHILD AND MY VERY LIFE.

Sincerely,

Florence Bissett

FLORENCE BISSETT