

SCOTLAND

Hi Mom & Jim. I'm on Britair right now, heading back to London. We've been in Edinburgh Photograph Fergus Smith • Scottish Piper Scotland for the weekend.

This is the most beautiful country I've ever seen. I love it. Someday I'll bring you new Mom! It's so old and scenic. We walked & shopped all day yesterday.
I've even woke up early enough to climb Arthur's Seat, a mountain behind our Bed & Breakfast to see the sunrise. It was freezing & wind. Pneumonia will be worth it! We actually climbed the mountain twice - what a workout! We climbed at the first night to see the lights and decided we had to see the sunrise the next morning. We also took wine & sodas to the green at the bottom last night to watch the stars. This place is absolutely gorgeous.
Pictures will take. At the train station this morning we met Conrad Barr, Phillip Drummond Now, his in 1st class & we'd from Different Stokes. He was with his wife, not. 'Oh well!' It was fun. on our platform. We got autographs & pictures.

We were really surprised how nice and fun he was. We spoke to him for quite a while

Miss you & Love Shannon
