On October 1, 2007, Congressman Tim Bishop along with Congresswoman Nita Lowey introduced HR 3707 which authorizes the establishment of Dark Elegy as a commemorative work representing a memorial to all victims of terrorism. Successful passage into law will provide the opportunity for Dark Elegy to be located in the Washington, DC area.

Your advocacy at this point is very important to expanding the base of congressional support needed to pass this legislation. Please make as many calls as possible and pass this advocacy alert on to other friends, family and networks and ask for their support.
