CAMP U.S.S. Mallory.

Aug 29 1919

Dear Doctor Shepard.

Please send me at 187 Westminster Road a record of the subjects I took while at the seminary. Now that I am within twelve hours of New York I begin to think of the future— with this result.

We expect to dock tomorrow morning at Hoboken and the boys are forward on the main deck hoping that they might get a view of a famous skyline before the sun disappears. I am afraid they are doomed to disappointment for the sun is already a low red ball ahead of them, and the "old lady" has refused to show herself as has <sup>any other</sup> another piece of terra firma.

I don't know how long it will be before we get discharged, but hope it will not be very long. It will not be very long after we are discharged before we will get home, if what the boys say is true.

The seminary ought to have a very prosperous year. I'd like to be there and enjoy it with you, if you ~~not with~~ me.

With best wishes that the coming term will be a happy and prosperous one.

Respectfully yours,
Arthur C. Gerber.
